

Why would Vixen lie?

What does she have to gain?

She is one of the eight highest-ranking reindeer
in the world.
She has sacrificed her family,
her husband Victor to this job.
And now,
all of a sudden
she's going to put her career on the line?
Not even on the line. She's thrown it away.
The conservative press will make sure she never works
again.

After all these years,
she's thrown her career away.

For what?

A prank?
P.M.S.?
No.

She's standing up to him because what Santa Claus did to her is wrong.
And the world needs to know it.

A reindeer has a right to her own body!
Why are we treated like livestock??
