

I need this job –

I used to be a ballet instructor, and I can't go back to that You see, there was a movement – this was before your time – a fundamentalist religious movement where they were saying that reindeer shouldn't ballet.
It was really weird.
There were all these people giving sermons and talking about it like a dancing deer was a sign of the apocalypse or something.
I mean,
it's not like we were doing modern dance,
this was classical ballet.
